

SGD FELLOW'S BEELINE FOR THE PHILADELPHIA FLOWER SHOW

SGD FELLOW Ann-Marie Powell's first garden (illustrated below) for The Philadelphia Flower Show this month will showcase her studio's love of plants, pollinators, people and place. Held at FDR Park, the show's theme is 'In Full Bloom' and Ann-Marie and her team will contribute a garden filled with flowers to attract pollinators. 'The design includes a pond to support wildlife, and the path layout is inspired by a bee's wing,' says Ann-Marie.
